

Allister Heath

Global growth has peaked for now – but no need to panic

Nigel Farage

Brussels is trying to bury the City with rules

Martin Durkin

The frightening reality of the welfare state

HOME

NEWS

LIVEBLOG

OPINION

CAPITALIST

FEATURES

WEALTH

LIFE & STYLE

SPORT

Fashion | Going Out | Technology | Travel | Motoring | Health & Grooming | Food & Drink | Property

» LIFE & STYLE » TRAVEL

Get away from it all in style

in Share 0 f Share 9 Tweet 32 ShareThis 50 Email 0

January 27, 2014, 3:08am

From pristine African beaches to chic European winter bolt-holes, 10 luxury island retreats that are guaranteed to get you far from the madding crowd

9. Vamizi Island, Mozambique

vamizi.com

Vamizi Island nestles within the Quirimbas Archipelago, a string of islands along the length of Mozambique's remote Northern Coast, offering the run of your own private island. Just 12 kilometres long and one kilometre wide, Vamizi, fringed with gently-shelving beaches and calm waters, is a haven for adults and children alike.

14 nights from £9,205 per person

PROMOTIONAL FEATURE
GET FIT WITH LAX
» ST. BOTOLPH'S

LIVE BLOG

Breaking news from the City and around the world

MOST POPULAR

Most read | Most commented | Most shared

- 1 RBS brands lost £722m in value over tough 2013
- 2 The City needs to start planning for a leftist Labour government
- 3 Britain's consumers still have dangerously high levels of debt
- 4 Average home to cost £600k
- 5 Last-ditch talks as commuters face Tube strike

more than just a marketing ploy

Financial Guides & Commentaries

Content from sponsors

- Aiming to provide above average dividend income. Capital at risk. (Aberdeen Asset Management)