

HOME & AWAY

LATE SEASON HOLIDAY INSPIRATION AND INTERIORS TRENDS FOR AUTUMN WINTER.

Hidden treasure

Want some true 'away from it all' luxury? Vamizi Island, Mozambique, is an exclusive hideaway that specialises in escapism. New this September is the spectacular Tartaruga Private Villa. It sleeps up to 14 in five en-suite bedrooms and is set on a deserted, coral strung beach. There are two tree houses, connected by a timber walkway, a lounge, dining room and bar area as well as its own swimming pool. This kind of luxury doesn't come cheap – it's £3,925 (approx. €4,944) for seven nights per person sharing – but it does include full board with a private chef, housekeeping a car with driver, security, daily laundry service, guided sea kayaking, whale watching, snorkeling, yoga, spa treatments...we've nearly justified it as 'good value' already.
